

*"But the angel said to them,
"Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord -(Luke 2:10-11)."*

Yes, the Messiah, the Lord is born!
Praise and thanks be to God Almighty for a wonderful and precious gift to humankind.

As I look back on a great 2010, I marvel of the wonderful blessings of God. I am grateful to all ABGTS partners, friends, and supporters who without their passions and hearts for preparing Asian church leadership through theological education, ABGTS would not be able to advance its goals. I praise God for our supportive and energetic ABGTS Board of Trustees and administration. I thank the Lord for our partner seminaries for carrying their commitments to ABGTS. I appreciate the efforts and dedications of the Associate Deans in overseeing the Area Learning Centers. Most especially, I am pleased and blessed with our students who showed unrelenting spirit in striving hard in their academic pursuits, transcending themselves to become better servants of the Master. I believe each of you, especially that we are commemorating and celebrating Jesus' birth, has wonderful blessings to share about yourself, family, and ministry--this I would love to hear!

As a new year is dawning, it is my prayer that ABGTS would be stronger and better institution in its pursuit of spiritual and academic excellence. I will appreciate and seek your usual prayers and support for the accomplishment of this desire. And, as ABGTS family, it is my longing that each of you--your family and ministry, will be prospered greatly by the Lord in year 2011!

A Joyous Christmas and a Blessed New Year to All!

Thankfully yours,
Lizette F. Knight, D.Min.,Ph.D.
ABGTS Dean
December 23, 2010